TEMPORARY BEACH DRIVING CLOSURES LIFTED ON TOWN OF SOUTHAMPTON OCEAN AND BAY BEACHES

Effective October 15, 2025, at 9:00 AM

In coordination with Suffolk County, the Trustees of the Freeholders and Commonalty of the Town of Southampton announce that temporary beach driving closures have been lifted effective October 15, 2025, at 9:00 AM.

Beach driving conditions have been assessed and are now open with advisories as follows:

- Quogue Beach to Surf Club: Driving is passable.
- West of Roger's: Driving is not advisable at this time.
- Roger's to Pikes: Driving conditions are good.
- Between Swordfish and Roger's: Driving is not advisable.
- Between Flying Point and Fowlers: Driving is good.
- From Inlet to Ponquogue: Driving is skinny but passable.

The Trustees urge all beach drivers to proceed with caution and remain aware that beach conditions are subject to change due to tides and weather.
